DAVIS FILES AUTHORITY*Contrary Exhibit From Same Author.*Examination of Debtor Stopped by Judge Robinson.*Appearance for Widow of Harry Congdon—The Parker Hearing.

A conclusion came to the examination of judgment debtor in the case of J. L. Howland vs. Byron O. Clark somewhat abruptly yesterday afternoon. Messrs. Davis and Mead began at each other, as on the former hearing, with mutual protests against interruptions, but the court applied the curb reins promptly and there was no scene developed. Exhibits to show the authority of Davis and to deny it were filed, which revealed considerable of a self-contradictory attitude on the part of the complaining creditor. Mr. Davis came first with the following:

PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBITS.

"Pomona, California, April 29, 1899.

"George Davis, Esq., Honolulu, H. I.

"Dear Sir: Your name has been given me by the U. S. Consul at Honolulu, and I wish to intrust to you the collection of the enclosed note and judgments.

"Inasmuch as the time required for an exchange of communications is so great, I wish you would take any steps that may be required to collect the claims without referring the matter back to me, but get the money if it is a possible thing to do.

"I send you the original notes and transcripts of the judgments.

"The parties acknowledge the claims as valid but claim that they are unable to pay. Of course if neither of them has anything we will have to wait; but if there is anything in sight that can be subjected to the payment of the claims, we desire to force payment.

"Trusting that we may receive a favorable report from you in due course, I am "Very truly yours,

"HOWARD A. BROUGHTON."

"An unsigned leaf of a memo. pad containing Mr. Broughton's professional card at top, dated 'Pomona, California, 10, 3, 99,' comes next, in which Mr. Davis is asked if he will please report what he thinks can be done about the Clark and another matter sent to him. Then there is the following letter from the claimant himself, written on the letter paper of the American Beet Sugar Co.:

"Oxnard, Cal., 12, 20, '02.

"Geo. A. Davis, Esq., Honolulu, H. I.

"Dear Sir: Some six months ago I wrote you in regard to the judgment be deceived. That there are cheats and frauds in plenty everybody knows; but it is seldom or never that any large business house is guilty of them, no matter what line of trade it follows. There can be no permanent success of any kind based on dishonesty or deception. There never was, and never will be. The men who try that are simply fools and soon come to grief, as they deserve. Now many persons are, nevertheless, afraid to buy certain advertised articles lest they be humbugged and deluded; especially are they slow to place confidence in published statements of the merits of medicines. The effective modern remedy known as is as safe and genuine an article to purchase as flour, silk or cotton goods from the mills of manufacturers with a world-wide reputation. We could not afford to exaggerate its qualities or misrepresent it in the least; and it is not necessary. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; and how valuable such a blending of these important medicinal agents must be is plain to everybody. It is beyond price in Insomnia, Anemia, Weakness and lack of Nervous Tone, Poor Digestion, Lung Troubles and Blood Impurities. Science can furnish nothing better—perhaps nothing so good. Dr. W. H. Dalfe, of Canada, says: "I have used it in my practice and take pleasure in recommending it as a valuable tonic and reconstructive." It is a remedy that can afford to appeal to its record and represents the science and knowledge of bright and aggressive medical investigation. "One bottle convinces." At chemists,

"Mr. Byron O. Clark, Wahiawa, H. I.

"Dear Sir: Your letter of the 15th inst. received and in answer would say that you were mistaken in your statement that I had sued you, for till I received your letter I did not know that you had been sued, for your note was turned over to the bank with my other assets and they were the ones who sued you without my knowledge. I will write and have any more proceedings stopped for the present. Now what kind of collateral security will you be able to give me and how long time will you want to pay me in and how will you make the payments. Please write me at once just what you want to do in the matter. As to costs of judgment I did not order them made, so I do not feel as if I ought to pay them.

"Yours,

"J. L. HOWLAND."

DEFENDANT'S EXHIBITS.

Mr. Mead filed the following letters as exhibits:

"Dear Sir: In answer to yours of the 11th inst. will say that I did answer your letter of January last, asking you several questions, but received no answer. I have written to Davis the lawyer three times in regard to the judgment but have never received any answer from him, only the first time when he was notified not to press the case. Will you please find out and let me know at once the sum total of the judgment to date including costs and interest. Also please find out what Davis' bill is and as soon as I hear from you I will make you some kind of a proposition.

"Yours,

"J. L. HOWLAND."

This letter was marked answered on Jan. 18, 1904, and Mr. Mead stated that Mr. Clark made a proposition to Mr. Howland but received no reply.

Mr. Davis stated to the court that he had not had anything to do with the bank, his instructions having come from Mr. Broughton and Mr. Howland. He did not remember ever receiving orders not to press the case.

Mr. Clark was called to the stand again. After he had answered a few questions, Judge Robinson cut the proceedings short with the decision:

"Let the order of examination be discharged."

COURT NOTES.

Judge Gear concluded the hearing of the Parker guardianship matter yesterday morning, with an order to the parties to file briefs. S. H. Derby and A. A. Wilder addressed the court for the guardian.

Judge Robinson signed a decree for the adoption of Leon Sterling by Joe Enos and Kanohukula Enos with full rights of inheritance. The child is ten years of age and both his parents are dead. Kanohukula Enos was appointed guardian of the property of Leon Sterling, which consists of lots 1 to 8, Kaimuki tract, valued at $2400.

With reference to the petition of Charles Phillips, administrator, for leave to sell real estate of the late Harry Congdon's estate, F. E. Thompson and C. F. Clemons have entered their appearance as attorneys on behalf of Aggie Congdon, widow of decedent.

A TIRELESS WORKER

A Victim of Nervous Debility. Now a Wonder of Vivacity, Explains the Marvel of the Change.

Mrs. Dora B. Frazier, of No. 140 Althea street, Providence, Rhode Island, is today the very embodiment of vivacity. She is an energetic forewoman in a large laboratory and shows no traces of her recent long struggle with nervous prostration succeeding typhoid pneumonia.

"My illness began in 1898," says Mrs. Frazier, "and lasted for about three years in all, and for three months I was confined to my bed. I made occasional attempts to work, but I could only manage to put in two or three days out of a week at the very best. Several times I was actually at the point of death.

"I had a good physician but he could not succeed in getting me out of my weak state. It was hard for me to retain any food and my weight dropped down to seventy-five pounds. I had a great deal of dizziness and suffocating spells. One of my legs was swollen so as to interfere with my walking. I could get scarcely any sleep, my color was very pale and I suffered from irregularities that are very painful and depressing to women.

"I dragged out month after month of such an existence. I then read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in a Providence paper and I thought I would just try them. Before I got through the first box I said to my mother: 'Why, these pills are certainly doing me good. We both grew hopeful and I kept on taking them steadily for six or seven months and then occasionally for some time longer, and all the time my troubles kept lessening until at last they were gone altogether. I got rid of indigestion, headaches, nervousness, sleeplessness, dragging sensations and irregularities of every kind and my weight ran up thirty-two pounds.

"It is more than a year since I took up my full work and in all that time I have not lost a day through illness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made me a well woman and I have no lack of strength or cheerful spirits."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a specific for all diseases of the blood and nerves. Their power has been tested in the most extreme cases. They are sold by all druggists throughout the world.

you hold against Byron O. Clark for me, but I have not received any reply as yet from you, so I write again. When I last wrote you Clark offered to give new notes signed for three years at 7 per cent. interest and Mrs. Clark will give as security ten (10) shares Pine Apple stock paid up to par value at $100 per share, note to be for principal and interest to date. What do you think of the proposition? The settlement will have to be made through you, he will have to pay costs, etc. Please write me full particulars as to costs, all expenses, how much the note is principal and interest, by return mail and oblige.

MADITWE CASES ALL*McCarthy and Edwards Fined Under New Statute.

William McCarthy, who had previously pleaded guilty, and Benjamin C. Edwards, who now changed his previous plea of not guilty to that of guilty, were sentenced by Judge Dole yesterday each to pay a fine of $10 and costs for violation of the shipping laws. They were charged with going on board the ship Solano, within 24 hours after her arrival in port, to solicit members of her crew for a boarding house. Judge Dole intimated that the penalty was made light because the offenses were the first under the amended law, but any future violations would be dealt with more severely.

The test case of Captain Simerson and other employees of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. against that corporation, to decide whether seamen's wages can be withheld for payment of Territorial taxes, was called in the Federal court yesterday morning. It was ordered to be submitted on briefs. While the United States law exempts sailors' wages from attachment, the law of Hawaii makes employers responsible for the personal taxes of their employees. J. J. Dunne appeared for the libellants, Abram Lewis Jr. for the libellee and M. F. Prosser for the Territory.

A number of seamen from the gunboat Wheeling applied for naturalization to Judge Dole, but had to be turned away because their qualification will not be complete until they receive discharge.

JAS. F. MORGAN.*A Wonderful Discovery

This is the age of research and experiment, when all nature, so to speak, is ransacked by the scientific for the comfort and happiness of man. Science has indeed made giant strides during the last century, and among these by no means the least important discoveries in medicine comes that of Therapion. This preparation is unquestionably one of the most genuine and reliable Patent Medicines ever introduced, and has, we understand, been used in the Continental hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Jobert-Velpeau, Massonneau, the well-known Chastaigne, and indeed by all those who are regarded as authorities in such matters, including the celebrated Gall-mand, and Roux, by whom it was some time since uniformly adopted, and that it is worthy the attention of those who require such a remedy we think there is no doubt. From the time of Aristotle downwards, a potent agent in the removal of these diseases has (like the fern of the philosopher's quest) been the object of search of some hopeful, generous minds; and far beyond the mere power—if such could ever have been discovered—of transmitting the heat of metals into gold, surely the discovery of a remedy so potent as Therapion, speedily and safely to expel from the system the poisons of acquired or inherited disease in all their protean forms as to leave no taint or trace behind, such is the New French Remedy Therapion, which may certainly rank with, if not take precedence of, many of the discoveries of our day, about which no little ostentation and noise have been made, and the intense and ever-increasing demand that has been created for this medicine wherever introduced appears to prove that it is destined to last into oblivion all those questionable remedies that were formerly the sole reliance of medical men. Therapion may be obtained in England, direct from the proprietor, and of the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the Colonies, India, China, Japan, &amp;c. —Diamond Fields Advertiser, Kimberley.
